

Introduction to JavaScript

Two-Day Course

Windows and Macintosh

Course Overview:

Learn the scripting and programming techniques required to develop leading-edge, interactive features for your Web site that go beyond the capabilities of programs such as Macromedia Dreamweaver MX or Adobe GoLive. Topics include image manipulation, automatic location changes, opening and closing windows, browser detection, cycling banners, frames, form calculations & validations and slide-shows. Strong knowledge of HTML is a prerequisite.

Course Content:

- Introduction to JavaScript
- Variables, event handlers, JavaScript syntax
- Browser detection
- Image rollovers
- Opening and closing windows
- Dynamic content creation in windows
- Cycling banners
- Slide shows
- GIF animations
- Random images
- Dynamic frames
- Form calculations and validations